DEPOSIT INFORMATION

To secure your desired date for the event and to cover any potential damages that may occur during your event, a deposit is required. This deposit is both a date reservation fee and a security measure against damage. Please note that we do not charge for incidental damages, such as minor glass breakages, which are understood to happen during normal event usage. However, we will deduct charges from the deposit for any significant damages requiring repairs or special cleaning.

The deposit must be paid in cash and is essential for the final confirmation of your booking. This approach ensures we can manage any repair costs directly and expediently, should they arise. We aim to return the deposit within 48 hours following the conclusion of your event. This timeframe allows us ample opportunity to thoroughly clean and inspect the space, ensuring everything is in order before we release the deposit. We appreciate your understanding and cooperation in helping us maintain The Anchor Pub in the best possible condition for all our patrons and events.
